Internal Medicine Physician
Fishkill, NY – Dutchess County

Premier Medical Group is currently seeking an Internal Medicine physician to join our growing, multi-specialty practice. Premier offers care in the areas of Urology, Gastroenterology, Internal Medicine, Rheumatology and Podiatry. Desirable candidates will have the following background and qualifications:

- A Medical Degree, New York State Medical License, Board Certified or Board Eligible in Internal Medicine
- Exceptional communication skills and the desire to work cohesively with a team
- Performance-driven with a focus on patient satisfaction

At Premier, we understand the importance of maintaining an autonomous practice and balanced lifestyle. As such, our physicians have flexibility in their scheduling and input into their staffing as well as other organizational procedures. In addition, there is no on-call coverage or weekends required.

Located just 90 minutes north of New York City, our location offers an appealing, suburban community with many cultural and culinary experiences nearby.

Premier offers a full range of benefits including a competitive compensation package, medical, dental, and vision insurance, paid time off, paid holidays, a 401K/profit-sharing plan, and many perks and discounts. Interested candidates are invited to email a CV to Laine Belmonte, Director of Human Resources, at lbelmonte@premiermedicalhv.com.
